you can take them to any ANZ branch , or post them to: ANZ Investments, Freepost 324, PO Box 7149, Wellesley Street, Auckland 1141.
APPLICATION CHECKLIST
You need to send us all of the documents in the checklist below.
Completed application form including;
Original statutory declaration, to be witnessed by any person who is authorised to take statutory declarations (refer to section 6).
Certified or verified ID and proof of address (refer to section 6).
A bank deposit slip for your solicitor's trust account.
A copy of the sale and purchase agreement for the property you're buying showing you as the purchaser.
And either:
A letter of undertaking – conditional agreement, to be completed by your solicitor if you're using your KiwiSaver savings as a deposit, or
A letter of undertaking – unconditional agreement, to be completed by your solicitor if you're using your KiwiSaver savings to pay part of the purchase price at settlement.
If applicable, you must also supply the following documents:
If you've previously owned a home: an eligibility confirmation letter from Housing New Zealand showing that you qualify for a KiwiSaver first home withdrawal.
If you're buying/building a home on Māori land: evidence of your right to occupy Māori land.
If you were eligible to receive Government contributions while working overseas: evidence you were working overseas for the New Zealand Government or a charitable organisation while receiving Government contributions.
You must submit your application, along with all required supporting documents, at least 15 business days (10 business days if you haven't lived overseas) before your payment date.
To avoid delays, please take the time to complete the application form in full and send us all the required documents in the above checklist. Your solicitor will be able to help you with this. It's important to note that we can't process withdrawals after your payment date.
By completing this application form, you consent to and authorise the release of, at any time, to the manager and/or supervisor, all personal information held by any person or organisation that the manager/supervisor considers appropriate for the purpose of checking information provided by you in support of your application.
What if you're building your first home?  If you're planning to build your first home, your first home withdrawal/HomeStart grant must be put towards the purchase of the land.

6. IDENTIFICATION AND PROOF OF ADDRESS

As part of your application, you must provide certified copies of your ID and proof of address. All photocopied documents must be verified or certified by an authorised person, such as a Justice of the Peace, before sending them to us.

Please provide us with either:

ΑN	ND one of the following:
	a certified/verified copy of your current firearms licence.
	a certified/verified copy of your current driver licence showing your name, signature and expiry date, and a bank account statement issued to you by a registered bank (excluding ANZ), or a certified/verified copy of your current passport (page showing your name, date of birth, photograph and signature), or a certified/verified copy of a bank statement issued to you by a registered bank (excluding ANZ) (which can't be more than six months old), or a certified/verified copy of your utility bill (which can't be more than six months old), or a certified/verified copy of an insurance policy document issued to you (which can't be more than six months old), or a certified/verified copy of a Government agency document issued to you (which can't be more than six months old).

Who can certify your documents?

An ANZ staff member or an ANZ Investments approved financial adviser can verify your ID and proof of address. Alternatively, the following people can certify photocopies of original documents as true and correct copies in New Zealand:

- · Notary Public
- Justice of the Peace
- · Member of the Police
- New Zealand lawyer
- · New Zealand Chartered Accountant
- A person who has legal authority to take statutory declarations (or equivalent) in New Zealand.

If you are overseas: a person who has the authority to take statutory declarations or equivalent in your country.

Please note that the certifier must be at least 16 years of age and cannot be:

- a person involved in the transaction requiring the certification
- related to you
- · your spouse or partner
- a person who lives at the same address as you.

Here is an example of what your ID should look like when it's been certified correctly. Ensure the 'true likeness' wording is included.

See anz.co.nz/myid for a full list of acceptable documents and ways documents can be certified or verified. Alternatively, talk to an ANZ staff member or your financial adviser. Remember to include your certified/verified ID and proof of address with your application. Any information missing from your application will cause delays.

Please note that a KiwiSaver first home withdrawal can take up to 15 business days (10 business days if you haven't lived overseas) to process once we have received all of the required documents. We will contact you to confirm the outcome of your application.

7. STATUTORY DECLARATION

A statutory declaration is a written statement that allows a person to declare something to be true. You'll need to complete this page in front of an authorised person. You'll make the declaration, and the person witnessing will take the declaration.

Who can witness the declaration?

The following persons can witness you making the declaration:

- · Notary Public
- Justice of the Peace
- · Person enrolled as a barrister and solicitor of the High Court
- · Registrar or deputy registrar of the Supreme Court, High Court, a District Court or Court of Appeal
- Any other person authorised by law to take statutory declarations.

Note: ANZ branch staff can't take statutory declarations

- I haven't held an estate in land before, whether alone or jointly with another person, OR I've held an estate in land before, but I qualify for a first home withdrawal as a previous property owner or because the estate was an interest in Māori land.
- I haven't made a first home withdrawal from a KiwiSaver scheme before.
- I've been a member of a KiwiSaver scheme and/or a complying superannuation fund for a combined total of at least three years, OR Inland Revenue received a contribution to a KiwiSaver scheme for me at least three years ago.
- I understand $1,000 and any amount transferred from an Australian complying superannuation scheme can't be withdrawn for a first home withdrawal.
- the property I'm purchasing is intended to be my principal place of residence and is not intended to be a rental or investment property.
- the property I'm purchasing is in New Zealand.
- I understand that my application for a first home withdrawal is subject to ANZ Investments receiving a completed application form and all supporting documents listed in the checklist at least 15 business days (10 business days if you haven't lived overseas) before my finance or settlement date.
- · I understand my withdrawal must be paid to my New Zealand solicitor's trust account before my payment is due.
- I understand that if I haven't had a principal place of residence in New Zealand during my KiwiSaver membership, I won't be entitled to withdraw any Government contributions received during that same period. Any Government contributions claimed on my behalf during any such period will be returned to the Commissioner of Inland Revenue.
- the information I've provided on this application form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

AND I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957.
